

Dinnerware

Last Updated Friday, 28 September 2007

Coming Soon!

We're still not finished with our new website. We'll have content in this section soon.L'Objet

Inspired by nature but remarkably civilized, the collections of L'Objet have redefined the art of home entertaining. A sumptuous visual feast of rich, refined colors and exquisite designs, each L'Objet creation is thoughtfully conceived and carefully hand-made by European and Asian master craftsmen. Incorporating such distinctive materials as 14K gold, Swarovski crystals and fine Limoges porcelain paste, L'Objet combines unexpected elements and textures to create expressive luxurious tableware. The Love Plates Collection More than just crockery! Love Plates stand for color and ambitious design from glass of highest quality. At home or as a gift. Whether by the nearly infinite combination possibilities of the basics or together with the color matching designs – There’s no limit to your creativity. By their timeless Retro-Design the Love Plates are exactly that. Play with the color combinations of the charger, dinner and salad plate. From “funky” to “smart”, from “sophisticated” to “stylish” – every arrangement is possible. Bonggenre- Jill FenichellJill Fenichell, a former antique porcelain dealer, designs melamine plates that display interesting color relationships and rhythms between shape and pattern and color. Perfect for indoor and outdoor entertaining Jill's collection makes an undeniably becoming (and unbreakable) backdrop for all meals, big and small.